

2023 CUSTOMER EXECUTIVE OF THE YEAR AWARD NOMINATION FORM

Background:

In the spring of 2004, ASPI elected to honor an individual with the presentation of an award to signify that person's contribution to the pulp & paper industry. It was decided the award would be made yearly at the Association's Spring Meeting.

Objective:

1. To improve relationships between the paper industry and its suppliers through recognition of a customer executive who demonstrates behavior, processes and procedures that enhance the benefits provided by the supplier.
2. To provide positive and constructive publicity for ASPI and its member companies.

Requirements for Selection:

- An individual executive employed by a pulp, paper and/or board producer customer

Selection and Presentation:

- The ASPI Board of Directors votes on the slate of nominees to determine the recipient.
- Awarded at the ASPI Spring Meeting
